

FIR Registration, Police Station & Arrest Rights

Statute: Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita 2023 (BNSS) / CrPC & NALSA Act | Category: Criminal Law & Police Powers

CITIZEN RIGHTS IN POLICE INVESTIGATION & ARREST

1. MANDATORY FIR REGISTRATION & ZERO FIR:

If a cognizable offense (e.g. theft, assault, robbery, fraud) is reported, the police station I

2. RIGHTS OF AN ARRESTED PERSON:

- Right to know grounds of arrest immediately.
- Right to inform a family member or friend about arrest instantly.
- Right to consult and be represented by a lawyer of choice.
- Right to medical examination by a government medical officer upon arrest.
- Right to be produced before Magistrate within 24 hours of arrest.
- Women cannot be arrested after sunset and before sunrise except in extraordinary circumstance

3. FREE LEGAL AID UNDER NALSA (SECTION 12 NALSA ACT):

Free legal assistance is guaranteed to women, children, SC/ST members, industrial workmen, pers