

Right to Information (RTI) Application & Procedure

Statute: Right to Information Act 2005 | Category: Governance & Transparency

RIGHT TO INFORMATION ACT 2005 - CITIZEN GUIDE

1. CITIZEN RIGHT TO KNOW (SECTION 3):

Any Indian citizen can request information from any public authority (government departments, p

2. HOW TO SUBMIT RTI APPLICATION (SECTION 6):

- Write simple application in English, Hindi, or official local language addressed to Public In
- Specify exact information requested clearly.
- Pay nominal fee of Rs. 10 (via Court Fee stamp, IPO, Demand Draft, or online at rtionline.gov)

3. MANDATORY TIME LIMITS FOR RESPONSE (SECTION 7):

- Normal Information: PIO must provide information within 30 days of receiving application.
- Life or Liberty Information: Information concerning life or liberty must be provided within 4

4. APPEALS PROCESS (SECTION 19):

- First Appeal: If no response in 30 days or unsatisfactory answer, file First Appeal within 30
- Second Appeal: File Second Appeal to State / Central Information Commission.